Carlisle Green Room Club

2023 Season

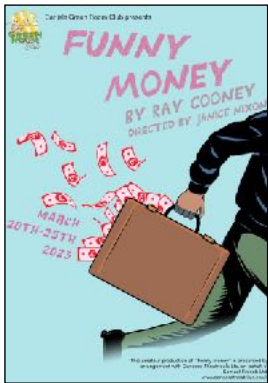

West Walls Theatre, Carlisle

January 30th to February 4th

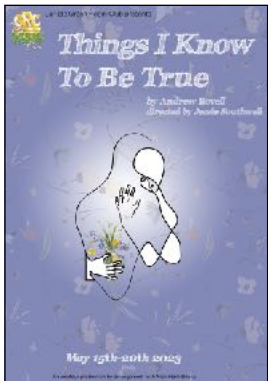

An aspiring West End director has decided to run an amateur dramatics group. A mishmash of wannabe actors answer her advert in the parish newsletter. The scene is set as they embark on a journey, along with a rather grumpy village hall janitor, which finds them performing a parody of The Merchant of Venice penned by an unknown author. As well as laughter, along the way some unpleasant truths emerge.

March 20th to 25th

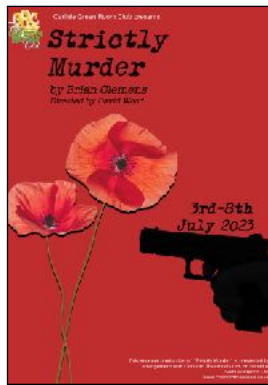

Henry arrives home late for his birthday dinner after discovering that he has picked up the wrong briefcase, instead of cheese and pickle sandwiches it contains one million pounds in used bank notes.

Hilarious innuendo and cruelly funny turns of fate ensue as Henry and his wife assume various identities in their battle to escape to Barcelona and start new lives.

May 15th to 20th

Funny, poignant and heartbreaking, Things I Know to be True examines the dynamics of a family and how they understand truth in the face of tragedy. Bob and Fran have four adult children, all trying to define themselves separately from their parents' expectations. The play is about family love. Sometimes comforting and supportive, sometimes suffocating and destructive. But always love.

July 3rd to 8th

2 April 1939.

An idyllic existence in the lavender fields of Provence is shattered, not by the onset of war, but when Suzy Meredith realises that her husband is not the man she thinks he is. Who is this man who is being hunted by Scotland Yard and tortured by his past? Find out on the above dates, when a ruthless killer on the run is finally brought to justice in a terrifying denouement.

August 14th to 19th

Murder, Mirth & Mayhem
This is not the musical! A thriller in two acts. The play starts in Sweeney Todd's Barber shop. It is morning and early spring. Apart from a surprising change of heart and bid for sympathy at the final moments of this version of the classic story, Todd glories in his villainies throughout and gleefully slaughters right and left until the cast is almost eliminated.

October 9th to 14th

When humble schoolteacher Ichabod Crane visits the mysterious village of Sleepy Hollow, he vies for the hand of the beautiful Katrina Van Tassel, causing upset amongst the townspeople. But amidst the rumours and legends of something much more sinister, the townspeople end up being the least of his worries...

A lively twist of the classic ghost story. With a perfect mix of tongue-in-cheek humour and gothic tension, this atmospheric show promises to entertain at Halloween!

Pantomime

Details to be announced

Bar & Refreshments

The Cellar Bar is well stocked and reasonably priced. It is open each night of a production an hour before a performance, during the interval, and afterwards.

Coffee, tea and ice cream are available in the foyer during the interval.

Theatre Facilities

Our auditorium has easy access for one wheelchair, and enabled toilet facilities are available. We also have a loop system installed for those with hearing difficulties.

Hire Our Theatre

West Walls Theatre is available for hire, although our own programme of plays and pantomime each year means that limited dates are available. Please contact the Director of Productions at the theatre for more details.
